'Tis the Season!

Well, it is almost time to get the cocoa ready and to buy those gifts! The holidays are on their way. And, even though it may be easy to get lost in the Christmas bustle, try not to forget the reason for the season—Jesus! So from our Elfers family to yours: Merry Christmas! :)

Fall Formal...A Night to Remember

Everyone present enjoyed a wonderful time last month as the 7-12th graders were invited to attend ECS's Annual Homecoming. The creative and spunky carnival theme, dreamed up by our own Spirit Club, was beautifully decorated. Along with some delicious treats, including mini cheeseburgers, there was even a chocolate fountain dotted with marshmallows and strawberries! Also, a big thank you to Pastor Charlie and Vinny Bochinni for all of their help with DJing. Our Homecoming King and Queen: two seniors, Luke Pecora and Alyssa Musto-Addino. Thank you to Mrs. Gillespie and the Spirit Club, as well as all the staff, Principal Robertson, and the Senior Center. GO EAGLES!

Our Pep Squad's Public Debut

On Saturday, November 11, the ECS Pep Squad gave their first public performance during the Annual Arts & Crafts show at the Elfers Care Center. Joy Bergman (Captain), Ava Cerniglio, Ilein Lara, and Zendaya Prudent executed two numbers before the crowd. The pep squad is coming along nicely in their routines, and they are excited to begin the basketball season! Please come out and support ECS's first-ever Pep Squad on their first official basketball performance on Tuesday, December 12th, starting at 4P.M. In addition, this hard-working team will be representing Elfers Christian School on Saturday, December 10th, at the Holiday Parade on Main Street in New Port Richey. The parade starts at 6 P.M. See you there!!!
